The Face of Commercial Real Estate

Richard Bowers graduated from the United States Military Academy and served five years in the military, including a tour in Vietnam. He received a master's degree from Georgia State University and has spent the past 40-plus years as a top commercial real estate producer, having worked for Arthur Rubloff as well as Peachtree Corners Development and Cousins Properties, Inc.

He founded Richard Bowers & Co. in 1980, and the company has grown to approximately 100 agents, administrative support personnel, and real estate professionals. The firm has completed more than 11,300 requirements in excess of more than 86 million square feet. Bowers has also completed more than 1600 requirements and 60 million square feet.

The company and sister firms are active in all facets of commercial real estate. Bowers is a significant contributor to his alma maters as well as organizations such as the American Cancer Society, Habitat for Humanity, United Way, The National Kidney Foundation, and the Georgia Tennis Foundation. He is chairman emeritus of TCN Worldwide, a 2012 West Point Society distinguished graduate award honoree, and a Georgia Tennis Hall of Fame recipient. He also owns 260|270 Peachtree, two high-rise office buildings Downtown.
